

MEDIA ACCREDITATION TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR RIGHTS HOLDERS

Set out below are the media accreditation terms and conditions (“Accreditation Terms and Conditions”) for the ICC Women’s World Cup 2017 (the “Event”). The Event is scheduled to be played in England and Wales from 24 June 2017 – 24 July 2017 (inclusive of the reserve day for the final Match).

All personnel intending to attend the Event as a media representative MUST complete or approve the completion of the relevant Accreditation application in the format specified by IBC, including an acknowledgement by each Applicant on behalf of themselves or their personnel that they agree to be bound by these Accreditation Terms and Conditions.

All Accreditation applications must also include one recent electronic head and shoulders photograph of the Applicant and, if requested by or on behalf of IBC, a letter of endorsement on company letterhead from the Applicant's employer certifying that the Applicant is attending the Event for legitimate work reasons.

Applicants will be advised whether or not their application for Accreditation has been approved by email or other appropriate method of communication. Neither IBC nor the Host will be responsible for non-notification of Applicants who provide inaccurate email addresses or contact details.

No application for Accreditation will be considered unless it is made on the appropriate form. The locations of accreditation collection points will be announced by IBC in due course.

If required, and at the request of the Applicant, the Event office will provide, to the appropriate authority, a letter in support of a visa application for any successful Applicant for Accreditation. However, all Applicants acknowledge that neither IBC, the ICC nor the Host has any responsibility to any Applicant for the issuance of any entry visa (which is the sole preserve of the relevant national government authorities) and that this letter is not, in itself, a guarantee of successfully securing an entry visa to visit the Host Country for the Event. Any visa applications should be made sufficiently in advance of the Event. It is the sole responsibility of the Applicant to ensure that he/she has made the necessary visa arrangements for travel to the Host Country.

Accreditation, if granted by IBC, will be subject to the Applicant complying strictly with the full Accreditation Terms and Conditions. Failure to abide by the Accreditation Terms and Conditions could result in the Accreditation of the Applicant (and the Accreditation of anyone else employed by or representing the Applicant’s employer) being revoked for the whole or any part of the Event.

Kindly make and retain a copy of the completed application for Accreditation for your reference.

2. Indemnity

2.1 The Accredited Party and, where the Accredited Party is an employee, his/her employer, jointly and severally agree to indemnify and to hold harmless IBC, the ICC and/or the Host from and against any and all loss, damages and liabilities, including (without limitation) bodily or mental harm, personal property damage or loss, loss of profit, business or opportunity, indirect or consequential loss,

ACCREDITED PARTIES MAY NOT SELL OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER THEIR ACCREDITATION OR USE THEIR ACCREDITATION JOINTLY WITH THIRD PARTIES.

4. Grant of Request for Accreditation

4.1 IBC may grant or reject the request for Accreditation in its absolute discretion and, if granted, may impose such further terms and conditions as it sees fit. Once granted, IBC may revoke Accreditation at any time in its absolute discretion without providing reasons and without being liable to compensate the Applicant, Accredited Party, their employer or any other person or entity.

4.2 IBC, or its representative, may ask an Applicant or Accredited Party to substantiate the work being undertaken at the Event (and/or any Match) by requesting the Applicant or Accredited Party to provide evidence of their work. If requested, this evidence must be provided as soon as is practicable and in any event by no later than 24 hours after the initial request. Should this material not be provided, IBC may withdraw or refuse Accreditation.

Applicants and Accredited Parties agree not to interfere with other media, spectators, rights holders, players, teams or play at any time during the Event. Nothing in these Accreditation Terms and Conditions is intended to be, or shall be, interpreted as undermining editorial independence or as restricting or preventing the reasonable exercise of normal journalistic activities, including expressions of comment and fair criticism.

6.2 Accredited Parties shall not engage in any conduct which, in the absolute discretion of IBC, could prejudice or undermine the value of any of the commercial rights relating to the Event. Such conduct may include, by way of example (and without limitation), the provision of voice or text commentary, analysis or updates to third parties unrelated to the Accredited Party's employer, client or commissioning editor. If an Accredited Party fails to comply with this paragraph, IBC may withdraw that Accredited Party's Accreditation temporarily or permanently.

7. Anti-corruption

7.1 The Applicant acknowledges that the ICC has policies and procedures in place to eradicate conduct of a corrupt nature which is prejudicial to the interests of the game of cricket. By completing the application for Accreditation, Applicants and Accredited Parties agree that any information which they receive as a result of obtaining an Accreditation shall be for the sole purpose of media reporting or conducting other legitimate Event business. The information obtained whilst in the possession of an Accreditation Device shall not be used or disclosed by an Accredited Party for the purposes of obtaining financial gain or the creation or collection of data, whether directly or indirectly, for the purpose of gambling, betting, gaming or any other form of financial speculation.

7.2 The Accredited Party shall not, whilst in any Venue:

- (a) use any electronic device to engage in any online betting or gambling activities in relation to the result, progress, conduct or any other aspect of any Match, including but not limited to ball-by-ball spread betting and/or the use of betting exchanges nor facilitate in any manner whatsoever the conduct of any form of betting or gambling whether within or outside the Venue by any third party; or

- (b) offer to any third party any bribe or other reward to fix or to contrive in any way or otherwise improperly influence the result, progress, conduct or any other aspect of the Match.

7.3 Each Accredited Party shall report any suspicious betting or other potentially corrupt activity of which he/she becomes aware whilst present in any Venue as soon as reasonably practicable to the ICC's Anti-Corruption Unit by telephone on: +44 7933373148 or by email to contactACU@icc-cricket.com.

8. Collection of Accreditation Devices

Please note that the Accreditation Device may only be collected in person by the Accredited Party and not by a representative of the Accredited Party unless otherwise advised or permitted by IBC. Proof of identity on collection of the Accreditation Device in the form of photographic identification (e.g. national identity card, passport or driving licence photocard) will be required and a copy of the photographic identification may be made. Upon collection of the Accreditation Device, the Accredited Party must sign a separate form to confirm receipt of the Accreditation Device and agreement to these Accreditation Terms and Conditions.

9. Use of Accreditation

9.1 IBC reserves the right to amend or limit an Accreditation and will notify the Accredited Party accordingly. IBC will provide the Accredited Party with one Accreditation Device which must be clearly displayed at all times on the Accredited Party's person once inside the Venue. Accredited Parties must carry valid photographic identification at all times whilst in any Venue. Each Accredited Party is permitted access to any Venue only for the duration of each Match and to any Zone(s) indicated on the Accreditation Device.

9.2 If the Accreditation Device is lost or stolen, IBC shall, at its sole discretion, decide whether a new Accreditation Device is to be issued. This requires the Accredited Party to adhere to the following procedure:

- (a) any theft or loss must be reported to the police within 24 hours after its detection; and
- (b) the theft or loss notification issued by the police must be presented at the Accreditation centre.

IBC has no obligation to issue a new Accreditation Device.

10. Access to Venues

10.1 Access to a Venue shall only be granted upon presentation of a valid Accreditation Device together with, where necessary, a valid match day ticket or similar device. On the request of the security staff involved in the security check, a national identity card, passport or other form of photographic identification may also be required to be shown. In order to remain at the Venue, the Accredited Party must comply with the safety and security provisions set out in these Accreditation Terms and Conditions as well as any safety and security regulations applicable at the Venue.

10.2 All Accredited Parties acknowledge that they shall travel to and from the Host Country, travel around the Host Country outside Venues and be present inside Venues at their own risk. In the event of an incident which causes damage or loss involving (a) injury causing death, (b) bodily injury or (c) permanent damage to health, the ICC, IBC and/or the Host shall only be liable if any of their authorised representatives or agents caused such damage or loss through their negligence. In respect of all other incidents causing damage or loss, neither the ICC nor IBC nor the Host shall be liable for any damage or loss suffered by the Accredited Party.

10.3 Access to a Venue will be refused to any person noticeably under the influence of alcohol, narcotics or any behaviour-modifying substance, or to any person behaving or likely to behave violently, harmfully or in a manner contrary to public order. Furthermore, access will be refused to any person whose appearance or behaviour, in the opinion of IBC and/or the Host and/or any Authorised Person, negatively affects the public standing of the Event, IBC, the ICC, any Commercial Partner and/or the Host.

10.4 All Accredited Parties acknowledge that they shall abide by the terms of the ICC Anti-Racism Policy (available for review on the Website). Without prejudice to the foregoing, any conduct by the Accredited Party (whether through the use of language, gestures or otherwise) which is likely to offend, insult, humiliate, intimidate, threaten, disparage or vilify any reasonable person (including, without limitation, any player, umpire, referee, staff member or other spectator) on the basis of their race, sex, religion, culture, colour, descent, nation or ethnic origin will result in his/her Accreditation being withdrawn, his/her ejection from the Venue and possible further action such as criminal prosecution, identification by way of photographing and/or capturing by video camera of his/her images and a life-ban imposed on the Accredited Party.

10.5 All persons at the Venue are strictly prohibited from using, possessing or holding promotional or commercial, political, religious or racist objects and materials, offering to sell, selling or possessing with intent to sell, goods such as (but without limitation) drinks, food, souvenirs, clothes, promotional and/or commercial items, unless specifically approved in advance by IBC or the Host in writing. All such items may be removed or temporarily confiscated by IBC, the Host and/or any other Authorised Person(s).

10.6 All Accreditation Devices remain the property of IBC and shall, upon request by IBC or by an Authorised Person, be returned immediately to IBC (or to the Authorised Person).

10.7 Access to any Venue with any audio or audio-visual recording equipment shall be governed by the terms of the Accredited Party's employer's agreement with IBC, the relevant Production Partner, STAR or their Licensees.

11. Security and Prohibited and Restricted Behaviour and Items

11.1 Accredited Parties must follow the directions of the security personnel and all those persons duly authorised to give such directions at any Venue.

11.3 The following is a non-exhaustive list of items which Accredited Parties are forbidden to use, possess, hold or bring into a Venue, without the specific written permission of IBC and/or the Host:

- any article that is offensive, dangerous, hazardous and/or illegal or that may be used or that may be expected to be used as a weapon or a missile or that may compromise or otherwise interfere with the enjoyment, comfort or safety of (or pose a hazard to) any person or security at the Venue (including, without limitation, glass bottles or containers, cans (whether containing soft drink and/or alcohol), knives, fireworks, explosives, flammable items (other than cigarette lighters or matches for personal use), compressed gas containers, maces, flares, air horns, lasers, blow horns, whistles, smoke bombs and/or flag sticks that protrude more than a hand's breadth below the flag);

- animals (other than guide dogs);
- banners, placards, leaflets, signs or other materials, items, objects or clothing displaying political, religious, offensive or race-related messages, slogans or images or promotional or commercial identification or messages which, in the opinion of IBC and/or the Host, constitute Ambush Marketing.

IBC and the Host reserve the right to refuse entry to any person carrying any other items or substances that may be deemed to be offensive, disruptive, dangerous or likely to infringe any party's rights or any party's safety or security or any dangerous article or substance not referred to above.

All decisions regarding any items carried by any Accredited Party at any Venue shall be at the absolute discretion of IBC, the Host and/or any other Authorised Persons.

12. Sound and Image Recordings

12.1 Any Accredited Party attending a Venue agrees (to the extent permitted by applicable laws) that the Event is a public event and thus agrees that use may be made, free of charge and at any time, of his/her name, voice, image and likeness by means of live or recorded audio/video display, broadcast or other transmission or recording, photographs or any other current and/or future media technologies.

12.2 Subject only to paragraph 12.3 below, the Applicant, Accredited Party and their employer (if any) must not (either together or separately):

- (a) sell, assign, transfer or license the copyright in photographs taken at any Venue(s) other than to another media organisation (and then always on the strict condition that such media organisation undertakes only to use the photographs for editorial purposes and undertakes not to sell-on or sublicense the copyright in such photographs, which condition shall be strictly enforced by the Accredited Party and their employer); and/or
- (b) publish, disseminate or reproduce such photographs other than for editorial purposes (such as publication in the news section of a newspaper).

12.3 Nothing in paragraph 12.2 above is intended to or will be used to preclude news agency and newspaper syndication distribution in the normal course of business including sale of material to third parties for non-commercial use.

12.4 Continuous ball-by-ball and/or over-by-over audio updates (whether live, deferred or delayed) for transmission via the radio, the internet or via any form of mobile device (including, without limitation, mobile telephones) or other related devices from within any Venue are strictly prohibited. IBC may in its sole discretion revoke the Accreditation of any Accredited Party and/or their employer offering and/or undertaking the same off-tube from outside any Venue.

12.5 No Accreditation is available for any party seeking to distribute moving images, pictures, sounds, data, results, scores or commentary (except for editorial text reports) via a mobile telephony protocol or otherwise via a mobile device, except that the distribution of non-moving images, data, results or scores (textual but not audio) is permitted via a mobile telephony protocol or otherwise via a mobile device for editorial reporting purposes only provided, however, that with respect to data, results and scores: (i) any and all of these materials are ultimately used in a manner that presents them in context as part of a news story, news update or news bulletin and are not used on a stand-alone basis; (ii) none of these materials are ultimately used on a premium telephone results line, on an internet website 'scoring' service, presented as a scoreboard, scorecard or digital reconstruction of match play or otherwise delivered in a manner that could be misconstrued as the delivery of a 'live, as-live or near-live' scoring service; and (iii) none of these materials will be delivered directly to a mobile service operator or to any other outside agency for the purpose of retransmission to, or display on, a mobile device (including, without limitation, a mobile telephone) without the prior written consent of IBC.

12.6 Applicants, Accredited Parties and their employers (if any) acknowledge and agree that all commercial rights in respect of the Event (or any Match) are (as between the parties) the property of IBC.

12.7 Applicants, Accredited Parties and their employers may only use trade marks, logos, emblems and/or marks associated with the Event strictly in accordance with the guidelines issued by IBC, unless otherwise expressly permitted in writing by IBC. Accredited Parties shall not use tickets or Accreditations for the Event in any manner or engage (either by themselves or with any third party) in any marketing, promotional or any other activities associated with the Event which could result in themselves or any third party or third party's products, being associated with the Event, except with the express prior written approval of IBC.

12.8 Applicants, Accredited Parties and their employers may not use trade marks, logos, emblems and/or marks owned by the Host unless otherwise expressly permitted in writing by the Host. Accredited Parties shall not use tickets or Accreditations for the Event in any manner or engage (either by themselves or with any third party) in any marketing, promotional or any other activities associated with the Event which could result in themselves or any third party or third party's products, being associated with the Host, without the prior written approval of the Host in each case.

13. Consequences of Breach of Accreditation Terms and Conditions

13.1 Any Accredited Party whose actions are inconsistent with, or whose Accreditation Device has not been obtained in accordance with, these Accreditation Terms and Conditions may be refused entry to a Venue and/or a Zone or may be expelled from a Venue and/or Zone which they have accessed and the relevant Accreditation Device may be confiscated.

13.2 Where IBC or the Host has reasonable grounds to believe that an Accredited Party has not strictly complied with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, the Accreditation Device of such Accredited Party may be confiscated and rendered invalid. In such circumstances, the IBC-appointed Venue Manager shall undertake an initial investigation of the Accredited Party's actual or suspected non-compliance and shall report his/her findings (whether orally or in writing) to the ICC's Head of Media & Communications. The ICC's Head of Media & Communications shall take a decision in respect of the confiscation and rendering invalid of the relevant Accreditation Device(s) in consultation with the ICC's General Manager – Commercial and/or, in his absolute discretion, with the ICC's Chief Executive.

13.3 Accreditation will not be re-granted once it has been invalidated, except for in exceptional circumstances at IBC's sole discretion.

13.4 IBC, the ICC and the Host reserve the right to pursue all of their legal rights and remedies against any Accredited Party in breach of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions at their sole discretion.

14. Unforeseen Circumstances

16. Miscellaneous

16.1 These Accreditation Terms and Conditions constitute the entire agreement and understanding between the parties and supersede any prior arrangements, understandings or agreements (whether oral or written) between them relating to the subject-matter hereof. Nothing in this paragraph 16.1 operates to limit or exclude any liability for, or remedy in respect of, fraud.

16.2 No variation of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions shall be valid unless it is in writing and signed by or on behalf of each of the parties. The expression "variation" shall include any amendment, variation, supplement, deletion, termination or replacement however effected.

16.3 All Applicants and Accredited Parties irrevocably and unconditionally consent to the collection, use and insertion into a database by or on behalf of the ICC, IBC and/or the Host of personal information provided by the Applicants and any Accredited Party for the purposes of implementation of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, including for administration, communication, enforcement and access control purposes. The ICC, IBC and/or the Host may share such personal information between themselves and with such third parties as may be generally and reasonably required for the proper and efficient staging of the Event and to give effect to any of their respective rights in terms of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions. All Applicants and Accredited Parties have the right of access to, and correction of, their personal information upon written request to IBC.

16.4 Each of the provisions set out in these Accreditation Terms and Conditions shall be severally enforceable. Notwithstanding that the whole or any part of any provision(s) of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions may be declared void, ineffective or unenforceable in any respect by any competent court in any jurisdiction, the provision(s) in question (or part thereof, as the case may be) shall be severed to the extent necessary and the other provision(s) of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions and the remainder of the provision(s) in question (as applicable) shall continue in full force and effect.

16.5 No failure or delay by IBC (or by any third party which has rights under these Accreditation Terms and Conditions pursuant to paragraph 16.6 hereof) to exercise any right (in whole or in part) under these Accreditation Terms and Conditions shall constitute a waiver of that right, nor restrict any further exercise of that right. To the extent that IBC (or any third party which has rights under these Accreditation Terms and Conditions pursuant to paragraph 16.6 hereof) is prevented or delayed by matters beyond its reasonable control from performing any of its obligation(s) under these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, IBC (or such third party, as the case may be) shall be relieved of any liability to any Accredited Party for failure to perform or for delay in performing any such obligation(s).

16.6 Each of the following third parties shall have the right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce:

- (a) in the case of the Host, paragraphs 1.1(b), 1.1(c)(ii), 2.1, 2.5, 10.2, 11.3, 12.8, 13.2, 13.4, 16.3 and 16.6 (a) of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions;
- (b) in the case of the ICC, paragraphs 2.1, 2.5, 10.2, 10.4, 13.4, 16.3 and 16.6(b) of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions.

16.7 These Accreditation Terms and Conditions and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions (including, without limitation, any dispute or claim relating to non-contractual obligations) will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with English law. Any dispute (including, without limitation, any non-contractual dispute or claim) arising from or in connection with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions or an Accredited Party's attendance at a Match will be submitted to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IBC reserves the right to pursue any legal proceedings in a competent court in the defendant's domicile.
